Remember in Prayer

Please pray daily for those serving in the Military, our veterans in recovery, and those recently ill especially Frank Bielicki, Gene Falck, Patti Rico (dear friend of Joann Algeo), Peter Gervickas (brother of Sue Bosco), and Mark Switzer. Names are placed in the bulletin for approximately one month and then those names are placed on the 2nd Friday prayer list and are remembered in prayer each month.

Volunteer Drivers Needed

Catholic Charities is working with a Ukrainian refugee who is living with a sponsor family in Ranson. She is in need of transportation daily from her work at Weis Grocery store in Ranson to her home. This would be at 3:15pm, and it would take about 10 minutes to get to her home. If you can help, please contact Joan Garten at joangarten@me.com or 304-549-4074.

Bishop Stowe on "Synod & Eucharistic Revival"

We have an exciting opportunity coming up at St Agnes! Bishop John Stowe of Lexington who visited us last year will be coming again. Mark your calendars for the evening of May 2 and the morning of May 3. Bishop John will be giving a talk on the theme the "Synod and Eucharistic Revival." More details will be given soon. On April 30th our young people will be making their First Communion, so right afterwards is a perfect time to have Bishop John visit. The talk will be based upon the Pope's Apostolic letter Desiderio Desideravi (on the Liturgical formation of the people of God). You might consider reading this powerful reflection before his talk. This can be found on the Vatican Web page. The Eucharist, as Vatican II reminds us, is the Source and Summit of our faith. This means the work of the synod flows out of our Eucharistic Celebration, and the themes of the synod—communion, participation, and mission. The liturgy empowers us to embody and be a synodal people.

Dear Parishioners,

Happy Easter! We enter a celebration that starts Easter Sunday and continues until Pentecost. We are in a season of Mystagogia where our newest members who have received Baptism, Confirmation, and First Communion unpack what these sacraments mean. It will take a lifetime to unpack these mysteries. They start from their experience of the Risen Lord! I am reminded of Benicio, who was baptized at the Easter Vigil, and when he came out after Baptism and had put on his baptismal garment. I asked him what he saw, and he said new life! The next day I asked him again, "Benicio, how would you describe last night?" "Well," he said, "it was like a puzzle, and I found the missing piece." This reminded me of something Peter said as he preached in the Acts of the Apostles. He said the stone that was rejected had become the cornerstone. This is what Benicio is telling us. Jesus was the missing piece for him, and, now that he has found it, he can see the whole puzzle. As our newest members who have experienced the Easter Mysteries for the first time, we need to listen to all of them and their stories—Benicio, Zoe, Steve, Bo, Kim, and Jim. They should renew us to experience the sacraments with open eyes and open hearts so that we can experience them in a fresh way through the Risen Lord and be empowered by the Holy Spirit to carry out his mission. We are an Easter People and Alleluia is our Song!

St Agnes Craft Show

Our St Agnes Craft show will take place in conjunction with the Car show on Saturday, May 20, 10am-1pm. Table spaces are $25 and a donation of one item to our raffle. You will have to provide your own tables, chairs, and canopies. For more information related to the craft show, please contact Melinda, Melinda_y@comcast.net, or Jan, j_yates348@comcast.net. Registration is also available online through a link on the St Agnes website.

Cinco-ish de Mayo

Please join our youth and CFF program as we celebrate our summer break from formal CFF classes. We will be meeting in the grassy space in front of the church on May 7th after the 10:30 AM Mass. We will have games and food with a Cinco de Mayo theme. All are welcome to participate in this intergenerational faith community event. CFF will not meet at 9:15 on May 7th but will be meeting at 11:35 instead.

Haiti Coffee

We have Haiti coffee available at the parish center for purchase during office hours!

Service, Justice, and Peace Weekends

The Service, Justice, and Peace (SJP) Committee is restarting the SJP weekends beginning on the weekend of May 6 and 7 and continuing on the first weekend of every month. The Knights of Columbus will be providing the blue bags to be returned with items of food and feminine hygiene supplies to be delivered to Shepherdstown Shares and the Jefferson County Community Ministries Food Pantry in Charles Town. The parish nurses will be on hand to take blood pressure readings. Volunteers are needed to sit at a table in the vestibule before and after the three weekend Masses to accept donations for the meals for the hungry, feminine hygiene products, and Kolofata as well as to sell Haiti coffee. If you would like to help with this worthy endeavor, please call or email Eileen Elliot at 304-886-3612 or eepeachlan@gmail.com.

2nd Annual St Agnes Car Show

Our 2nd Annual St Agnes Car Show will be on Saturday, May 20, 10am-1pm, on the church grounds. There is no fee to enter, but donations will be gratefully accepted. Trophies will be awarded along with Dash Plaques to the first 50 entries. Online registration is available through a link on the St Agnes website. Registration is also available on the day of the event, but only the first 50 registered cars will receive dash plaques.

We are looking for door prizes for the car show. If you are interested in contributing a door prize, please contact the office.

In addition, we need volunteers to help with setting up and working the car and craft show. We need help Friday, May 19th during the day for various set up tasks. On Saturday, May 20th starting at 8 AM we need additional assistance with setup activities. We also need adults and youth willing to help with running the show: registration table, food table, auction/raffle tables and selling 50/50. We need people stationed in the church—last year we used the car show as an opportunity to give church tours. The church will be open for people to use the restrooms and to get a break from the sun. Please call the parish office at 304-876-6436 or email Bill Donahue at formation@stagnesshepherdstown.org to volunteer.

Anyone interested in helping to plan the event or who would like to volunteer to help at the event please contact Bill at formation@stagnesshepherdstown.org or Melinda Yates (YAMs committee) at Melinda_y@comcast.net.

Book Discussion Group

Our April 21 Book Selection is CREATION AND THE CROSS: The Mercy of God for a Planet in Peril by Elizabeth Johnson. In this fresh creative approach to theology, Elizabeth Johnson asks how we can understand cosmic redemption in a time of advancing ecological devastation. In effect, how can we extend the core Christian belief in salvation to include all created beings? We meet in the Parish Center at 11am on the third Friday of each month. We welcome anyone who wants to join us for one meeting or ongoing discussions.

New Course Offering

April 17-May 7, 2023

One three week course is being offered through the University of Dayton's Virtual Learning Community for Faith Formation (VLCFF). This course is a hybrid model and is composed of both weekly live two-hour zoom lectures as well as a rich variety of online course materials and discussion experiences through the University of Dayton's Virtual Learning Community For Faith Formation (VLCFF). The course is being underwritten by the Diocese of Wheeling-Charleston's Office of Evangelization & Catechesis, which pays 100% of the tuition and the cost of any books associated with the course. The course instructor is Dr. Rodica Stoicoiu. For further information or to register, please contact Dr. Rodica Stoicoiu at rodicastoiciuphd@gmail.com with your name, address, email, and phone number.

Ecclesiology: A Theological, Historical and Pastoral Summary

We will draw a historical line from the origins of the Church, to its present and look to its future. As part of this course, we will focus on how the Church went from a sect of Judaism to the Universal Church we know today while also looking at broad concepts in Church ecclesiology through the lens of the major document of Vatican II on the Church, Lumen Gentium. This course is three weeks in length and is a hybrid course. Materials include both a text book and online course materials through the VLCFF website. The class will meet online once a week for live lecture/discussion of the course material on Tuesday evenings 4/18, 4/25, and May 2nd, at 7 pm on Zoom. Course facilitator is Dr. Rodica Stoicoiu. rodicastoiciuphd@gmail.com

Intergenerational Community Garden

This year we are trying a different approach to our gardening endeavors here at St Agnes--intergenerational teams managing specific vegetable, herbs, and flower beds. Teams will ideally consist of related and nonrelated individuals, friends and neighbors, new and old, who have some interest in growing and maintaining a garden. Garden activities will be scheduled and volunteers will monitor the progress on a weekly basis. Teams will be self-managed with an overall coordinating team. Sam Yates and Fanny Smith have agreed to be the coordinators of this project with Bill Donahue as the general manager.

We need at least five teams, each will select one of the raised beds already constructed; a couple of the beds have plants from previous years. Gardeners will have the opportunity to share their knowledge and experience with all ages, the gardening tasks will be shared according to the time, level of ability, and stamina of each team member, and their overall interest in the garden. Our hope is to share our harvest with Shepherdstown Shares and also to use these fresh ingredients for our meals for the hungry.

If you think you might have even a small spark of interest, please reach out to Bill by calling the office or emailing him at formation@stagnesshepherdstown.org.

Stations of the Cross Trail

Please take an opportunity to visit the Stations of the Cross Trail behind the church. After some tree maintenance by the electric company, the stations were impassable. The youth group, who normally maintain the trail, were unable to complete their normal upkeep this year. They decided to use some of their fundraising money to pay a company to clear the heavy branches, etc, from the trail so that all could enjoy and use our Stations of the Cross trail. Thanks to our youth for being active members of the community!!!

West Virginia Eucharistic Congresses

2023 Eucharistic Congresses

Christ is Present! Will you be?
Come to the Table – Spring 2023
Diocese of Wheeling-Charleston

Don't miss this gathering of the Church in WV!

Spring 2023 will bring 3 regional Eucharistic Congresses to our diocese. Faithful across the state will have three locations to choose from – Charles Town, Wheeling, and Charleston. These homegrown events are part of the National Eucharistic Revival, a three-year renewal of “the Church by enkindling a living relationship with the Lord Jesus Christ in the Holy Eucharist.”

The Diocese of Wheeling-Charleston's Eucharistic Congresses are large weekend gatherings of faithful of all ages to bear witness to the Real Presence of Jesus in the Eucharist. A Congress brings together people from a wide area for prayer services, celebratory music, Mass, enriching talks, Eucharistic Adoration, and more. The Eucharistic Congresses will tailor activities to target faithful of all ages. Each culminates with Mass with Bishop Brennan. The whole family is encouraged to attend along with our clergy, religious, and Catholic organizations, and schools.

And there is one convenient to St Agnes, April 21-22, at St. James Catholic Church, Charles Town. This free event features nationally known keynote speaker Father Luke Spannagel. In addition, our own Rodica Stoicoiu will be leading breakout sessions at St James.

Bishop Mark Brennan is calling all of us together to celebrate Christ's real presence and to see the faithful fully alive. “Believe what Christ said at the Last Supper, ‘This is my Body. This is my Blood!’” This has been Bishop Mark Brennan's emboldening message to the faithful during his ministry.

We are also doing this to give each one of us the gift of time with God. God is truly a God of miracles. His love heals and transforms. Let this be a time to restore our mind, body, soul, and spirit.

Choose to attend and ask God to revive our love of the Eucharist, breathe His life into our lives and the Church.

For additional information and/or to register for the Eucharistic Congress, check out the DWC website at <https://dwc.org/eucharistic-congresses/>.

St Agnes Racial Justice Initiative News

This weekend we are adding a new, unique book to our Racial Justice Library in the church narthex: Fat Luther, Slim Pickin's - A Black Catholic Celebration of Faith, Tradition, and Diversity, by Marcia-Lane-McGee and Shannon Wimp Schmidt. The authors, hosts of the Plaid Skirts and Basic Black podcast, share their reflections on their experience of living as Black Catholics. They do so using the liturgical year as a framework for their personal stories, wry humor, faith insights, and honest reflections on how the overwhelmingly white American Catholic Church can live up to her call to live as a truly "catholic," i.e. universal church, open to all peoples with their distinctive traditions and cultural expressions.

Reading this book offers a wonderful, delightful window into the world of those who celebrate and cherish their faith as Black Catholics. This book can help us truly "see" our Black sisters and brothers as God sees them as His children all.

A reminder that there is a Racial Justice Initiative Group meeting on Zoom this Tuesday, April 18th, at 3:00pm. The link can be found on the St. Agnes website.
