Successful Pancake Breakfast!

Thanks to the youth, parents, catechists, YAMs, Beth and Fr. Andy for all the hard work to make the Pancake Breakfast a success! Thanks also to all the parishioners who came out in the rain and supported our event. We raised about $300 for the youth room and youth activities.

Free Community Christmas Dinner

The Shepherdstown Fire Department (8052 Martinsburg Pike) will be having its annual Free Community Christmas Dinner on Sunday, December 4 (that's today) from 12noon until 3pm. They will provide a free dinner to all who attend as their gift to the community for its continued support. The special guest of the day will be Santa Claus. There will be free gifts for all children, fire safety literature, and fire and rescue displays. This special event is for people of all ages. You won't want to miss it!

Music Notes

Thank you to everyone who participated in Summersing and the Summersing Concert, whether audience or performer. Through your generosity we have been able to give the Men's Rescue Mission in Martinsburg over $1,000 at Thanksgiving towards Project 604 – 4 apartments to house homeless families so they won't have to be separated. The Rescue Mission is a working mission. Everyone has a job. Anyone – anyone, can get a meal, 24-7, in their kitchen. Right now, they are in urgent need of clothing – for their thrift shop and to recycle. If you have something to donate this weekend or next, drop it off in the choir area and we will deliver it for you after Mass.

Haiti Coffee Available!

We have freshly roasted Haiti coffee, both whole bean and ground, available for purchase in the office during office hours. $3 from each bag is tax deductible.

Ecumenical Advent Bible Study

The Shepherdstown Ministerial Association is hosting an Ecumenical Advent Bible study each Wednesday of Advent. We have a couple of copies left of the book being used for the Bible Study (Mary Had a Baby—based on African American spirituals) available at the church for $10 per copy (but please don't let the cost of the book prohibit you from joining the book study!).

Study sessions are being held Wednesdays at 1pm at New Street Methodist Church at the corner of Church and New Streets and at 6:30pm at St Peter's Lutheran Church at the corner of King and High Streets.

For more information, please call the office at 304-876-6436.

Happy 90th!

Happy Birthday and many returns of the day to Bill Gray who will reach the rank of nonagenarian on Monday, December 5! Bill will receive a special blessing at the 10:30am Mass this weekend.

Youth Christmas Eve Program Practice

All St Agnes youth ages kindergarten to 6th grade are invited to join the fun! At 5:15pm on Christmas Eve, our youth will perform a couple songs at church just prior to the 5:30pm Mass. Rehearsals for this group will be held at the parish center from 9:15 to 9:45am on Sundays, December 4, 11, and 18. This is part of the CFF class activities, but kids who are not enrolled in CFF are also invited to participate. Please come and sing along with us!

Missing a Potholder?

A potholder was found in the church parking lot on November 21st. If you purchased potholders and have found that you have come up one short, please call the office.

Dear Parishioners,

I recently heard someone describe Advent as a season that is impregnated. They were using the example of the earth—things look a little barren, but in the spring we will begin to see things slowly start to sprout up. This reminds me of the stump of Jesse. I think as we look at the characters in the Advent season—John the Baptist preparing for something new, then there is Mary and Elizabeth with the hope and expectation of new births—how do we have an openness to what new births may come about in our lives, churches, and community? This calls for discernment. The characters in the Advent story had to listen and had to trust their inner experiences. When we use the word discernment, this is also something we do as a church. This requires that we deeply listen to each other with a sense of humility, that God might be revealing something to us, and we are being given a larger perspective. May this season, as a community, be a season of watching, waiting, and listening, to ourselves and to one another, trusting that even if we cannot see the whole picture that there is something developing even when it is a little turbulent. Let's trust the new birth of Advent.

Fr. Andy

Historic Houses of Worship Tour December 26, 2022

After a three year hiatus due to Covid concerns, the Historic Houses of Worship (Church) Tour is returning this year to Shepherdstown. The date for the tour is December 26, from 4-7 p.m. St. Agnes will be represented by having both the chapel and the church sites open on the tour. This tour was very well attended in the years leading up to the Covid shut-down, and many tour participants visited both the chapel and the church. In order for St. Agnes to be a welcoming presence during the tour, we need volunteers to help at both sites. Volunteer Greeters will be needed to greet the tour participants, hand out a brief history and help people gather in groups for the tours. Docents will be needed to guide people around the church, and at the chapel, to talk with small groups as they sit in the pews. Docents will be given training and fact sheets from which to lead the tours. One can volunteer for a portion of the 3-hour time frame or the whole time. Please consider volunteering for either the chapel or the church to help make our part of the wider Shepherdstown tour a great success! Please contact Judy Lilga if you are interested in volunteering or have any questions - 301-432-2276 or jslilga8@gmail.com.

The Christmas Potholder Fundraiser For Kolofata is Back!

Thanks to everyone who shopped at our Christmas Potholder sale on November 19 & 20. Regenia Carder's potholders were a huge hit. Of the 95 handstitched potholders, just 30 remain. Purchases and donations totaled $525. Thanks to an anonymous match of $1 for every $2 raised, we have added $762 to our Fund!

As those who came by discovered, there are also gift bags complete with bows, ribbon and tissue paper at a great price, and bags of gift tags. We have just 15 of the special gift bags with a colorful cooking utensil and potholder that sold out so quickly at our last sale. This is your last opportunity - on December 3 at 5 pm before the 5:30 Mass; after the 5:30 Mass; and December 4 after both Masses!

Cash or checks only, please. All proceeds benefit the Kolofata Girls' Education Project.

We'll also be selling Haiti Coffee ($10 a bag) – another great Christmas gift. Cash or checks only, please. All proceeds benefit Haitian Coffee Growers. The situation in Haiti is desperate. This is a concrete way to help!

Updating Our VIRTUS (Protecting Our Youth)

As per diocesan policy, all people who work with youth in the parish need to be trained in VIRTUS. If you work with our youth or plan on working with the youth in the future, please take the opportunity to complete the online diocesan VIRTUS training. The program is completely online and requires only about 1 hour of your time. We all want our children to thrive in a safe and nurturing environment. Please consider helping us achieve that environment. Copies of the steps to complete VIRTUS training can be found in the Narthex of the church as well as the parish center. If you have any questions, please contact Bill Donahue at formation@stagnesshepherdstown.org.

Cash Cards for Christmas Giving

There is a cash card for everyone on your Christmas gift list! The office has a list of cards available that we do not normally keep in stock. We would be happy to give you a copy or email it to you. You may order cards anytime, and they will be in within a week. In order to have your cards by Christmas, we will need to have your orders in no later than December 15th so that we will have them at the office by the 21st of December.

St Agnes Racial Justice Initiative News

Our children are our future. In a country still beset by racism as a challenge to fulfilling its promise of justice and liberty for all, we who are its adult citizens have a responsibility and opportunity to change who we are to be in the way we raise our children. The latest addition to our St. Agnes racial justice library, Raising White Kids, addresses this issue. One reviewer, Dr. Kristopher Norris, Visiting Distinguished Professor of Public Theology at Wesley Theological Seminary in Washington DC, captures its contents well:

"Raising White Kids asks parents to reconsider the conventional failed strategies of promoting colorblindness and valuing diversity (without addressing whiteness), which prove inadequate in the face of our racial crisis by ignoring or white-washing racial difference. Instead, Harvey proposes a 'race conscious' approach to raising white children that helps children not only to contest racism in ways a colorblind approach veils but also to contest racism through directly engaging with children about race and racial injustice - early and often. Combining research on child development with her extensive scholarship on racial formation and practices of antiracism, Harvey has written an easily readable book full of examples and concrete practices that helps parents give their children the tools they need to develop healthy white racial identity. Raising White Kids is urgent, important, and practical reading for anyone involved in the rearing of white children."

PARISH NURSING NEWS

Blood pressure and blood sugars will be checked after all Masses the first weekend of every month starting in January. I had hoped to do it the first weekend of December, but Covid got me and I would prefer not to compromise anyone as I still have symptoms, and am only recently past the quarantine period.

The current Covid strain is highly contagious and making the rounds. Flu and other respiratory illnesses are going around as well. Please make sure you are vaccinated and be aware it takes vaccinations 2 weeks to go into effect. Vaccination does not necessarily prevent you from getting ill, but symptoms tend to be less severe, and you are less likely to end up in the hospital.

Those who are immunocompromised or in close contact with immunocompromised folks are encouraged to continue wearing masks in public indoor spaces. The CDC continues to revise its guidelines on isolation after exposure and/or after contracting Covid 19. You can find updated guidelines on their website at www.cdc.gov/coronavirus under Covid guidelines.

If you have time or talent to share, please contact Gabriele at Gabriele@wvdavis.us to volunteer, or contact the parish office at 304-876-6436 and leave your name and contact information.

The St Vincent de Paul Home Visit Going to Those in Need

At the heart of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul ministry is the "home visit," where volunteers, called "Vincentians", visit neighbors in their homes. When we are contacted, we set up an appointment with the individual to help determine the exact nature and details of help required. We talk with them, as a friend would; we may pray with them; we create a dialogue that allows them to open to us and share what is truly happening in their lives. By visiting them in their homes, we can see, firsthand, the exact situation in which a person is living and experiencing. People who need help often are not able to take time off from work, arrange for childcare, or find transportation to seek resources. Therefore, our volunteers go to them. It is here we can help someone in need-- not only with direct assistance but with emotional and spiritual support. Sometimes, our friends (we do not refer to them as "clients") need a great deal of help, other times someone to pray with is all that is needed. We are there to let our friends know that someone cares. We strive to eliminate the barriers to self-sufficiency created by poverty, incarceration, homelessness, and other distressed situations and turn them into positive and hopeful new beginnings. The goals are to help people regain self-sufficiency, cultivate positive relationships, and begin to lead responsible lives in their own communities. This is an important and personally rewarding ministry that needs "your" help to help those in need.

If you would like more information about how you can help, contact Mike Vojtasko at 304-876-2963 or via email addressed to mcvojtasko@gmail.com.

Ugly Sleeping Bag Ministry

It is getting cold outside, and we are making warmer sleeping bags. We are in need of donated blankets, and comforters (any size). We are also accepting donations of used sleeping bags. Items should be clean and in fair condition. Donations can be dropped off at the parish center.

International Volunteer Day

International Volunteer Day, aka the International Volunteer Day for Economic and Social Development, is a United Nations observance celebrated around the world on December 5. It is a day for volunteer organizations and their volunteers to have their efforts commemorated and praised, as well as an opportunity to show the work that they do in their communities, on a national and international level, and encourage others to join them.

Volunteers keep charities working and moving forward. Most volunteers work without expecting anything in return, without being paid, and many do so at their own expense, of their money and their time. They work out of their own kindness and love to help others.

We applaud and thank our volunteers here at St Agnes and in the Shepherdstown community and beyond!

Amazon Smile

If you are an Amazon shopper, you can start using AmazonSmile to help St. Agnes if you haven't already. AmazonSmile is a website operated by Amazon with the same products, prices, and shopping features as Amazon.com. The difference is that when you shop on AmazonSmile, the AmazonSmile Foundation will donate 0.5% of the purchase price of eligible products to the charitable organization of your choice. The only thing you have to do is set St. Agnes as your charity of choice and then start using <https://smile.amazon.com> when you shop. You can learn more about Amazon Smile and how to sign up on the St Agnes Website under the "Giving" tab.
