Gathering for Widows and Widowers

All widows and widowers in our faith community are invited to attend a casual gathering in the home of our parishioner, Brigitte Schmidt on Friday, February 9th at 10am. She lives in Boonsboro, Maryland. Text 301-660-0376 to RSVP, and the address will be provided.

Community is a balm to grief; you are not alone. Come to obtain as well as provide support.

Dear Parishioners,

This weekend we celebrate the Rite of Acceptance to the order of Catechumenes and Candidates. What a gift they are to our church! As we celebrate Word of God Sunday, they bring a fresh word, a new word to us from the Lord. If we open ourselves to their experience, their renewal renews our church. We live in synodal times as a church, and we need to listen deeply to those journeying to become our newest members because they have a lot to teach us. As we hear the call of the disciples this Sunday, they have responded to the call of following Jesus more deeply. May we also follow that call. A big congratulations to all those who made this step with the Rite of Acceptance this weekend.

Fr. Andy

Racial Justice Initiative News

The blues is seldom associated with Martin Luther King, Jr. but its idiom is foundational to his life and ministry. In an opening address to the 1964 Berlin Jazz Festival, King offered remarks that give us insight on the relationship between the blues and religious faith. King begins by identifying the blues as originating from a divine source: "God has wrought many things out of oppression. He has endowed his creatures with the capacity to create—and from this capacity has flowed the sweet songs of sorrow and joy that have allowed man to cope with his environment and many different situations...The Blues tell the story of life's difficulties, and if you think for a moment, you will realize that they take the hardest realities of life and put them into music, only to come out with some new hope or sense of triumph. This is triumphant music." He goes on to suggest that jazz "has continued in this tradition, singing the songs of a more complicated urban existence. When life itself offers no order and meaning, the musician creates order and meaning from the sounds of the earth which flow through his instrument." He continues by crediting musicians as the leaders in the American search for identity and the inspiration behind his movement. "Long before the modern essayists and scholars wrote of racial identity as a problem for a multiracial world, musicians were returning to their roots to affirm that which was stirring within their souls. Much of the power of our Freedom Movement in the United States has come from this music. It has strengthened us with its sweet rhythms when courage began to fail. It has calmed us with its rich harmonies when spirits were down." King concludes by lifting his comments out of the particular and in to the universal: "For in the particular struggle of the Negro in America there is something akin to the universal struggle of modern man. Everybody has the Blues. Everybody longs for meaning. Everybody needs to love and be loved. Everybody needs to clap hands and be happy. Everybody longs for faith. In music, especially this broad category called Jazz, there is a stepping-stone towards all of these."

For King, the blues were an effective guide on how to serve as an agent for social change. By bearing witness to the truth of our circumstances, Martin Luther King, Jr. was a bluesman who offered a model for how to live a sanctified life. There will always be a reason to sing the blues. But sometimes when the song is sung, it tells a story that makes you want to pray along with Dr. King that "the deep fog of misunderstanding will be lifted from our fear-drenched communities and in some not too distant tomorrow the radiant stars of love and brotherhood will shine over our great nation with all their scintillating beauty."

Feeding the Homeless and Hungry

We began the New Year with Ellen Potter and her husband preparing and serving the community meal, also known as the Hungry and Homeless Meal, on January 3 at the Zion Episcopal Church in Charles Town. At our request, Ellen shared this information to give some insight into what goes into the work of this ministry:

"My husband and I provided meals this past Wednesday night and after your previous email, I was curious as to what we spent. First, let me tell you what we served: pulled pork sandwiches with homemade Cole slaw, Greek pasta salad, and brownies. We also provided BBQ sauce, 2 pieces of fruit (banana and clementine), and water.

The total cost was around $203. The biggest savings was when pork butts were on sale for $.99/lb a few weeks ago so we bought six and froze them until we needed them. Otherwise, they are $2.99/lb, which would have added another $90 dollars to the total."

The manager of Food Lion permitted Ellen to exceed the limit on the amount of pork she could purchase at the discounted price when she explained why she was purchasing. So, our thanks to Shepherstown Food Lion!

Heartfelt thanks go out to all of our chefs and to all of you who support this ministry in all the ways that you do.

Remember, you can donate to this ministry on SJP weekend each month. If you are interested in joining our chefs or in getting additional information, please email Kate Didden at katedidden@gmail.com.

All St Agnes Volunteers... Must Be VIRTUS Trained

The Diocese of Wheeling Charleston requires that all volunteers in all parishes, schools, etc., must be Virtus trained. And they will soon be auditing to verify compliance. If you volunteer in any capacity at St Agnes, you must do the training!

VIRTUS training is designed to help adults recognize the signs that indicate a child or vulnerable adult might be suffering abuse. It also helps adults by offering key points to help children and adults, who might confide in them, deal with potential situations. Finally, it helps adults know who to contact and what the next steps are if they suspect or discover a child or vulnerable adult is being abused. All this training is designed to help adults help others through a difficult situation.

It is truly in the best interests of everyone to have all volunteers VIRTUS trained.

The good news is that the training is all online and can be completed in a short period of time. Our Coordinator, Bill Donahue, can assist with verifying your training status and/or initiating your training. For questions or concerns, contact formation@stagnesshepherdstown.org or call the office at 304-876-6436.

To open the season of Lent, the holiest time of the year, St. Agnes Catholic Church will present a production of Godspell (2012 Revised Version), which was originally conceived and directed by John-Michael Tebelak and with music and new lyrics by Stephen Schwartz. A dedicated and talented group of St. Agnes youth is joined by equally dedicated and talented friends from Shepherdstown Presbyterian Church, Asbury United Methodist Church, and the community of Shepherdstown to present this musical, which is drawn directly from the teachings of Jesus. Godspell has been described as a timeless celebration of Christian friendship, loyalty, and love based on the Gospel according to St. Matthew. Certainly no easy task, as time pulls our kids in multiple directions, but our youth and their friends are dedicated to bringing the message of the gospels to light. We hope you will join and celebrate with us, and "Prepare Ye The Way of the Lord!"

Catholic Schools Week

Saint Joseph School is joining parochial schools across the United States in celebrating Catholic Schools Week from January 28 to February 3.

We will take time to honor all the people who help the school fulfill its mission to educate in the spirit of the Gospel, instilling Catholic values, inspiring academic excellence, global awareness and service to those in need.

- On Jan. 28, we will celebrate our parishes, who provide religious guidance, prayers and support all year. The SJS handbells will perform at the 10:30 a.m. Mass at Saint Joseph

Catholic Church in Martinsburg and the SJS choir will perform at the 11 a.m. Mass at St.

James the Greater Catholic Church in Charles Town.

- On Jan. 29, we will celebrate our community. Students will be asked to donate $1 each for Mary's Refuge and will write letters to their parents, thanking them for allowing them to attend SJS.

- On Jan. 30, we will celebrate our students by having them work with their prayer partners to write Mass petitions. They will also be treated to ice cream by our School-Family Association (SFA) and not be assigned any homework due the next day.

- On Jan. 31, our nation will be honored as staff and students are encouraged to wear red, white and blue. Donations will be collected for the Veterans Affairs Medical Center in Martinsburg and students will complete coloring sheets bearing images of our nation's heroes.

- On Feb. 1, students will celebrate vocations by dressing like someone in the vocation they aspire to have. Students and adults will write "thank you" notes to the priests serving our Eastern Panhandle Catholic churches. Teachers are encouraged to invite a guest to share his/her life vocation with their classes and students will visit Saint Joseph

Catholic Church to pray for their intended vocation for 10 to 20 minutes.

- On Feb. 2, we will honor faculty, staff and volunteers by writing "thank you" cards and/or make posters for custodians, extended-care workers, cafeteria workers, aides, teachers and volunteers. The SFA and homeroom parents will cover teachers' lunch and recess duties, and the SFA will provide lunch for the staff.

- Feb. 3 is a day to celebrate families by spending time together and thanking God for all of our blessings.

Religious Item Recycling

St. Mary Recycle Mission Group has been working with Catholic churches, Convents, Schools, The Knights of Columbus, and other organizations, as well as with Parishioners who have things at home in helping rescue and recycle used Religious items that are no longer needed.

Over the last 25 years, they have helped recycle items from Churches that have items from former Clergy that are no longer being used, or from Churches that unfortunately closed, as well as from Parishioners who need to place their personal religious items from home that they don't know what to do with. Over the years, they have found many of these items in the trash so they came up with a recycling program. They originally got started after finding several items cleared out from a church basement in the dumpster of a local church all in perfectly usable condition. They later found that there is a need for these unwanted items. Their first large effort was following Hurricane Katrina in New Orleans as they sent hundreds of recycled items to a parish there that was more than happy to accept items for both the parish and parishioners that they had gathered.

They can take in or give just about anything of Religious nature that can be used by other churches, convents or religious organizations such as:

- Vestments including Chasubles, Stoles, Albs, etc. (even if they are soiled or tattered, as we have them professionally cleaned and/or restored if possible so they can be worn, we can also use them to make new vestments, rosary cases or missal covers, we accept any style, color, vintage)
- Crucifixes
- Statues (any size, no outdoor concrete statues)
- Rosaries (damaged ok)
- Chalices (Pottery ok)
- Altar Ware
- Candle Sticks
- Tabernacles
- Relics
- Monstrances
- Altar Stones
- Altar Books/Missals/Lectionaries
- Holy Medals
- Holy Cards
- Linens
- Paraments
- Framed Religious Pictures
- Used Musical Instruments
- Prayer books//Breviaries

(Please No Religious Books/Reading Books/Story Books or Pamphlets/Magazines/DVD's or VHS Tapes or Wax Candles)

Please do not throw anything out that may be questionable as we take items in any condition.

Book Discussion Group

St. Agnes Book Discussion
February 16, 2024

Our February selection is NOT a novel but a memoir: The Yellow House: A Memoir by Sarah Broom Review by Melinda Pressler "A memoir of Broom's life before, during and after the deadly Katrina Hurricane which displayed millions of New Orleanians. The yellow house is the family home which tethers Broom's story and the only thing left. A historic odyssey of indigenous residents & her relatives flooded into diaspora. Broom writes as an anthropologist and excavator of what remains."

Ugly Sleeping Bag Ministry

We want to thank all parishioners of St. Agnes Catholic Church and Shepherdstown Presbyterian Church for donating all the supplies that go into making sleeping bags and those parishioners that have donated old used sleeping bags. This year we have made 34 sleeping bags, along with 18 donations of used and new sleeping bags. This gave us a total of 52 sleeping bags distributed to two agencies who serve the homeless: JCCM in Jefferson County and Immanuel's House in Berkeley County.

We are always in need of donated blankets, comforters (any size), and used sleeping bags (clean and in fair condition). Items can be dropped off at the parish center. Please join our team of sewers! For more information, contact Barbara Mueller by email at barbamueller596@gmail.com.
