Remember in Prayer

Please pray daily for those serving in the Military, our veterans in recovery, and those recently ill especially Kenny Harder (brother-in-law of Georgette Rush), Lorraine Javorsky, Nan York, and Linda Reynolds (friend of Sue Kemnitzer). Names are placed in the bulletin for approximately one month and then placed on the sick list near the baptismal font. Together we pray as a community for all who are listed in the prayer book in addition to those listed above. Your personal prayer requests may be added to the prayer book at any time.

Congratulations!

Congratulations to Chelsea Erickson who welcomed her new son, Kayden, into the world on November 20, 2019!

Congratulations to his grandparents, Shirley and Stanley Losiewicz, as well!

Advent Quiet Morning

Date: Saturday, December 7, 9am-12noon

Advent Quiet Morning:

Reflections on writings from the Desert

Advent is often a season of rushing around, parties, buying, and some anxiety. Take a morning to ponder what the Desert Fathers and Mothers have to teach us about what seems to be the opposite of our experience of Advent.....awareness, silence, stillness. This rich and ancient tradition has much to offer the 21st century. Come and learn from these wise souls and rest a while...and breathe.

Christmas Choir

New Members Welcome!

The Choir sings each Sunday of Advent with rehearsals at 9:15am, beginning on Sunday, December 1st.

- ◆ Rehearsal 9:15am December 1st with full Rehearsal at 4pm on December 1st.

Questions? Contact Elaine Rendler-McQueeney at elaine.rendler@hotmail.com.

Please consider lending your voice to enrich our Advent and Christmas celebrations!

How Catholics Read the Bible

Have you ever wondered where the Bible comes from? Who were the Gospel writers? What about all those other "Gospels" we hear about in the news? What is the Catholic approach to scripture?

How Catholics Read the Bible is a three week short course that looks at the history of the Bible and the approach that the Catholic Church takes to reading the Bible. We will meet Monday afternoons at the Parish Center from 1-3 pm. There are a couple of books you will need to order so please let us know you are attending- contact aff@stagnesshepherdstown.org or call the office.

Thanksgiving Blessing

All are invited to bring food or drink that is destined for your Thanksgiving table to our 9am Mass on Thanksgiving Day to be blessed!

Dear Parishioners,

This Sunday we will make a contribution to the Catholic Campaign for Human Development (CCHD) from our tithing fund. Should you wish to make an additional donation, you may do so by placing it in the basket at the baptismal front. All contributions are seed monies that will help many communities across our nation to bring themselves up and out of poverty.

This Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock, we will be hosting the Shepherdstown Community Thanksgiving Service. Please come and help me welcome our friends and neighbors. The service will be no longer than 45 minutes, and there will be refreshments to follow.

On Thanksgiving Day we will gather for Mass at 9 am. You are welcome to bring some food item from your table at home, and we will bless all our food items and you will then share that blessing with your family at home.

As we give thanks this week, I share with you these words of Pope Francis. We give thanks to God for this good earth and all creation that we so love and enjoy. We also accept the challenge to live with the utmost respect for all that God has created for the sake of the generations that will follow us!

Praise be to you, my Lord through our Sister, Mother Earth, who sustains and governs us, and who produces various fruit with colored flowers and herbs.

This sister now cries out to us because of the harm we have inflicted on her by our irresponsible use and abuse of the good with which God has endowed her. We have come to see ourselves as her lords and masters entitled to plunder her at will. The violence present in our hearts, wounded by sin, is also reflected in the symptoms of sickness evident in the soil, in the water, in the air and in all forms of life. This is why the earth herself, burdened and laid waste, is among the most abandoned and maltreated of our poor; she "groans in travail" (Romans 8:22). We have forgotten that we ourselves are dust of the earth (Genesis 2:7); our very bodies are made up of her elements, we breathe her air and we receive life and refreshment from her waters (LAUDATORY SI, Pope Francis commenting on the Canticle of the Creatures of Francis of Assisi).

Advent 2019 (First Day of Advent December 1)

Advent Reconciliation

Our Advent Communal Reconciliation will be on Saturday, December 14, at 4pm.

Advent Reflection Books have been carefully crafted to help you explore the depths of Scripture and deepen your relationship with Christ. They help us to spend some quiet time with the Lord each day. These Little Blue Books can be found in the Narthex.

At Home with the Word

This is your guide to a deeper understanding of the Sunday scriptures. It provides the readings for this liturgical year, along with insights from scripture scholars, and action steps. It also includes prayers, citations for weekday readings, and other resources for scripture study. You can pick up your copy of At Home with the Word in the Narthex or at the Parish Center.

Advent Wreaths & Candles

Advent wreaths and candles are available for purchase in the Narthex.

*A donation envelope is included with each item which can simply be placed in the offertory basket.

Advent Giving Tags

(Available in the Narthex!)

We are working with local agencies to provide gifts for low income and elderly members of our community. Please select a tag from the wreaths next to the St. Agnes mosaic, purchase a gift for the specific person, wrap it, place the tag on the outside of the wrapped gift, and bring it to the church or parish center no later than 12 noon on Sunday, December 8. Social Concerns will sort and deliver all the gifts to the various agencies.

SVFD Annual Free Community Christmas Dinner

The Shepherdstown Fire Department will be having its annual Free Community Christmas Dinner and Open House on Sunday, December 1st, from 12Noon until 3pm. We will provide a free dinner to all whom attend as our gift to you for your continued support of our organization.

The special guest of the day will be Santa Claus, bring your camera if you wish.

There will be free gifts for all children, fire safety literature, fire, rescue, and ambulance display.

This special holiday event is for people of all ages and you won't want to miss it. Come join us at the fire department located at 8052 Martinsburg Pike, just west of Shepherdstown. This Christmas event is our gift to Shepherdstown and the surrounding community to show our appreciation.

Social Concerns Weekend

December 7 & 8, 2019

There is lots happening this upcoming Social Concerns Weekend. All wrapped gifts for the Gift Tag project are due by noon on Sunday, December 8. If you take a tag or two or more, please return the gifts by then. Otherwise, Social Concerns members need to shop for the gifts that afternoon using funds we usually use for other purposes. We don't want anyone on our gift tag list to be disappointed.

We'll be collecting funds to feed the hungry and homeless and also collecting new socks, hats, scarves and gloves. Youth and parishioners will be serving the meal on Christmas Day. We'd like to be able to offer warm clothing as well as great food. Please bring donations to church or drop off donations at the Parish Center. There is a basket in the entry.

We received word Friday that Eastern Panhandle Empowerment Center, EPEC (formerly Shenandoah Women's Center) has a desperate need for women's winter coats. You can drop off women's coats at the office on Martin St. M-F from 9 – 4, or leave them at the parish center and someone will take them to EPEC. We'll be accepting donations for feminine hygiene products for EPEC as well.

A Christmas gift suggestion: The situation in Haiti remains grave. We can't personally do anything to help the political situation but purchasing the Fair Trade Just Haiti coffee we will be selling helps the farmers with much needed income during this crisis – and it is good coffee! On Feb. 2, 2020, Kim Lamberty, founder and president of Just Haiti, Inc. will be speaking after the 10:30 Mass. Mark your calendars!

Book Discussion

Eileen Dooley: 304-876-3320
dooleywoods@comcast.net

3rd Friday of the Month at 10:30am
All are welcome!

We've had a change in plans! On November 15, we discussed the first 8 chapters of Jesus of Nazareth: What He Wanted, Who He Was by Gerhard Lohfink. We found the book challenging but valuable – and our discussion very helpful. We have decided to meet on December 18 at 10:30 to discuss the rest of the book and do a recap. Please join us.

On January 17, 2020 we'll begin discussion of The Universal Christ by Richard Rohr, and we'll continue the discussion of this book on February 21.

For a change of pace, our March 20 selection will be Gods of the Upper Air: How a Circle of Renegade Anthropologists Reinvented Race, Sex, and Gender in the Twentieth Century by Charles King.

In the month of November, we prayerfully remember our faithful departed. If you have not already, you are welcome to place the names of those who have died in the past year into the Book of the Dead. Please do not enter names a second time, if you have placed a name in the book in the past, it remains and will be included in our prayer each time we gather for Mass.

Please know that if you feel it is unsafe to travel, we want to ensure your safety and support your decision to stay home.

Youth Meal Ministry

On the fourth Wednesday of each month, our youth serve a delicious, nutritious meal to the hungry of our region. Meals are served at Mt. Zion Episcopal Church fellowship hall on Washington Street in Charles Town. We leave from the parish center at 5pm and arrive about 5:30pm. You are welcome to just meet us there if that is more convenient for you.

The Sunday before, the youth prepare the meal in the parish center at 11:30am with our adult volunteers. Join us on Sunday, November 24, to cook and then on Wednesday, November 27, to serve the meal.
