

Photo & Video Consent Form

This form allows a parent/guardian to identify how images of your child may or may not be used for purposes of print, online, and social media communication or promotion for St. Agnes Catholic Church. In any print, digital and online postings, your child will never be identified by written caption without specific written consent of the parent. Your child will never be “tagged” in any posting through social media.

This form is valid for the time period of September 2024-August 2025
